MONDAY MORNING, MAY 30, 1864.

Draft on the 1st of July.—From the following statement, in a dispatch sent by Secretary Stanton to Gen. D. X., it will be seen that our predictions a few weeks ago, that more troops would be called for, are soon to be realized:

"It is the design of the government to keep up the national forces until the rebellion is overthrown, and in order to provide against any important reduction when the service of the hundred days' men expires, a draft to fill up their place, and all other reductions, will be ordered to take place on the 1st of July, by which time the new enlistments will be completed."

(Signed) E. M. STANTON, Sec. of War.

The Commutation Clause.—A bill was introduced in the United States Senate on Monday to repeal the three hundred dollar commutation clause of the enrollment act. The right, however, to furnish substitutes is to be retained.

Adjournment of Congress.—In the House, on Monday, Mr. Coffey, the member from this district, offered a joint resolution proposing a final adjournment of Congress on the 6th of June, which was adopted.

The Fremont Convention is to meet at Cleveland to-morrow. The Lincoln office-holders look upon the movement with no little alarm.

The Lincoln Convention will meet at Baltimore on the 7th of June, and the Democratic National Convention at Chicago on the 4th of July.

Fremont Determined.—The Rochester Democrat, the leading Republican paper in Western New York, has the following with reference to General Fremont's intentions: "We cannot lose sight of the fact, that the field as an independent candidate for the Presidency, in the event of Abraham Lincoln being renominated at Baltimore. The New Nation, his central organ at New York, openly repudiates Mr. Lincoln in advance, and Fremont is said to have telegraphed to a radical member of Congress recently, 'I will run if Lincoln does.'"

The Anti-Slavery Standard, published in New York, this Sunday the key-note of warning to the politicians of its party who are determined to put Mr. Lincoln in nomination, regardless of whether the Fremont men support him or not.

"You may nominate Mr. Lincoln, possibly, without satisfying the radicals, but you cannot elect him. Another candidate will inevitably be run unless he puts himself in a position to fight before the tribunal of the North. Victory and Justice are the two essentials of his success."

Hundreds of thousands of freemen are now looking to Governor Seymour to vindicate the rights of the people. He now has it in his power to do a great public good, and we believe that he is fully equal to the responsible position in which he has been placed. Prompt and decisive action is demanded by the masses.

Gen. Andrew Jackson a Prophet.—"Sir," said Gen. Andrew Jackson, "the abolition party is a diabolical organization. Its pretended love for freedom means nothing more or less than civil war and a dissolution of the Union. Honest men of all parties should unite to expose their intentions, and arrest their progress."

The Stark county (Ohio) Democrats says the Democrats nominated a one-eyed soldier for assessor of Sugarcreek township in that county by the name of Benj. Rush, and the abolitionists beat him with a preacher and school teacher, who has been "loyal" and shouting war at home. Rush lost his arm at Gettysburg and is poor.

The "people demand taxation," say the Shoddyite papers. Mr. Sherman, one of the leading Senators, told the truth in this matter when he said he held a great deal about the desire of everybody to be taxed, but whenever Congress attempts to impose a tax to affect an individual, that same person, although very patriotic, is always ready to show that while everybody else ought to be taxed, he, for some particular reason, ought to escape.

Two steam vessels of war, built for the use of the rebel government, have been launched from the port of Nantes, France. Another steamer, said to be for the rebel service, was finished at Bordeaux. It is said that the French government does not object to the open arming of these vessels, although the American Minister, Mr. Dayton, had remonstrated on the subject in Paris.

The Serious a Joke.—Says a Washington correspondent: "What are you doing in Congress? Inquired yesterday of a thoughtful and moderate M. C. 'We tried to confiscate the property of the South,' said he, 'and we could not do that, so we are now confiscating the property of the North.'"

A Republican paper talks of purging their party of all the rogues and Government speculators, disorganizers and mischief-makers. What a good thing this would be for the country—but what would become of the party?

Mr. Lincoln's doctrine is that whatever becomes indispensable becomes thereby lawful, though expressly forbidden by the Constitution—that, in short, his discretion overrides the Constitution, and is the supreme law of the land.

Getting Spunky.—A New York paper says the negro wretches are to have a National Convention to insist on having Fred. Douglass put on the Republican ticket for Vice President, and that if this request is refused they mean to punish Sumner, Beecher, Wilson, and, in fact, the men of the Republican party generally, by putting their backs to the wall.

A violation of the Constitution of the United States is the highest order of treason.

WHAT IS THE WAR CONDUCTED FOR?

On Monday week, Mr. Dawson, of this State, offered a resolution in Congress, to the effect that, as had been declared by Congress in 1861, the war was conducted not for the purpose of subjugation or conquest, but to restore the supremacy of the Constitution and the Union, therefore it was highly proper that in the hour of triumph and exultation of victory we should tender the olive branch of peace to any exchanger for the sword, and that the President be required to make a proclamation of amnesty to any State which should by down its arms and withdraw from the Rebellion, with a guarantee that such State should be left to reorganize and determine its own institutions without dictation or interference from the Government of the United States.

On motion of Mr. Meyer, an Abolition member from Philadelphia, this resolution was laid on the table by a vote of 76 yeas to 53 nays. Now, if the war is not carried on for the restoration of the Union, we would like our Abolition friends to tell the people what they are expelling their blood and spending their treasure for? Let it be remembered that 76 Abolitionists declared, by their votes in Congress, on Monday week, that they were not prosecuted for the restoration of the Union and the supremacy of the Constitution.

THE LOUSE MORALITY AT WASHINGTON.

As if in mockery of God and the teachings of the Bible, the general corruption and immorality of the nation, under the "powers that be," at Washington, seem to be increasing in boldness and infamy. So glaring have they become, that even some of the Republican papers, more honest than most of the war clergy and their bloody-minded disciples, can no longer refrain from exposing and condemning them. The following is from the Springfield Republican, one of the "loyal" New England journals:

"It is a sad, a shocking picture of life in Washington which our correspondents give us. The Treasury Department has made a house of seduction and prostitution. The necessities of poor and pretty women made the means of their debauchery by high government officials. Members of Congress putting their mistresses into Clerks' ships in the Department. An honorable Senator in the Treasury Department, who had been a woman who had outraged. Whiskey drunk and debauched. The Government in contracts and openly robbed by its employees."—writes our careful correspondent— "a long resident in the capital. Washington was never quite so villainously corrupt as at the present time. In the salary days of Southern rule of slavery, there was not half the corruption there is now. We do not doubt this is strictly true; and we repeat, it is a sad, shocking picture."

The correspondent of the Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch, an intensely "loyal" paper, writes as follows:

"It is generally conceded that the Congressional committee of investigation into the alleged mismanagement of the Treasury Department is disposed to deal mildly with the social question, and to examine strictly into the accounts. Congressmen are mortal and human, and three-quarters of the pretty girls employed in the Treasury have received their salaries on the credit of the Treasury. Consequently, were the private life of every one of these dainty quill-drivers to be investigated, it might be ascertained that some of them had conceived their gratitude to their protectors—in a vulgar way. Of course, already a Miss who was recommended by a Maryland Representative has been turned away for disgraceful conduct, and further investigations might reveal unpleasant facts. So the whitewash brush will be used. Proof of the mismanagement of the Treasury Department will be given by the manner in which the military detective who made the exposure of the Treasury dungs now receives the cold shoulder."

CAREFUL OF THE NEGRO.

In the great "Battle of the Wilderness" on Friday, the 6th inst., the New York Tribune's account says:

"The negro troops of General Burnside, commanded by Gen. Ferrer, had been placed at the disposal of Gen. Sedgwick, with the regulars, in order to assist in the capture of the fort. They should not be put into the fight."

"The negroes remained within a mile and a half of the front during the entire day until dark and were not brought into action."

This was the most fierce and desperate of the conflicts of the campaign and was in fact a drawn battle. If we had had a number of reliable troops equal to the number of negroes thus kept idle, it might have been made a decisive victory.

Also in "Carleton's" account of the battle of the 10th, near Spottsylvania, describing Burnside's operations at an important crisis of the fight, he says "the colored troops were not in the charge."

So in Gen. Banks' disastrous battle on Red River, we are told that the negro troops were not used. Why was this? Are these blacks reliable? And if so, why were they not made to do their part in the bloody work? These facts are significant. They show either that the officers in command have no confidence in the negro troops, or that they are very careful of placing them in a position not to be "hurt."

The recent military appointments of the administration are, to say the least, curious. General Butler, who never saw a shot fired in danger, and who had no military education, was appointed to the post of the most important command, and General Meade's, in the whole field. The Evening Post now complains that he has committed blunders, and that the expedition has miscarried because of his mistakes. What else could the Post expect? Under the circumstances it is no wonder that the whole army was not captured.

It is further announced that General Hunter has replaced General Sigel in command of the army in the valley of the Shenandoah. This is also a strange appointment, in view of the fact that the only fight General Hunter has been engaged in during the whole war was the first Bull Run, on which occasion he was wounded. Although frequently in command of important expeditions, he has never given the first instance of military enterprise or capacity. He may turn out to be a good general, but why should any risk be run when thoroughly competent officers fairly swarm in our armies? General Canby's appointment to replace General Banks is also inexplicable on military grounds. The only fighting he has seen was in the territories, and he has not even witnessed a battle in which over three thousand men were engaged. Yet the vast interests in the dominions of the Turkish Sultan are in his care. All will be well that ends well, but putting great armies under the control of inexperienced generals seems to us to be a very risky business.—World.

A severe shock of an earthquake was felt at San Francisco on Friday week. No damage was done, but the people were considerably alarmed.

THE FORGED PROCLAMATION—AN ARREST.

On Friday week the authenticity of the forged proclamation of President Lincoln was traced to Joseph Howard, city editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, and formerly connected with the New York Times and Tribune—city reporter and in other capacities, by means of which he acquired a knowledge of the routine of business of the New York press, and was enabled to perpetrate his infamous outrage. At first being charged with the crime, he appeared flustered and denied it, but afterwards fully confessed it. He was immediately conveyed to Fort Lafayette. His motive is said to have been to advance his interest in stock and gold gambling, by which he had been a heavy loser. The forged proclamation suggested itself to him as a means of retrieving his fortunes. The prisoner is reported to have been an active member of Mr. Beecher's church, of which his father is a deacon. The Times gives the following account of the circumstances which led to his arrest:

It seems that something like a week ago Howard consulted Mr. Kent, member of the firm of Kent & Clapp, brokers, as to the probability of effecting the purchase of a proclamation calling for 200,000 men. Mr. Kent gave him his opinion, and subsequently Howard showed him the draft of a proclamation which he claimed to know, through secret channels of intelligence at Washington, was about to be issued. After the publication in the World and Journal of Commerce on Wednesday morning, Mr. Kent at once identified the published proclamation with the draft which Howard had shown him, and gave information of the circumstance to Gen. Dix. Howard was arrested and brought to the general headquarters, where he at once made a full acknowledgment of his agency in the matter, and exculpated all the newspapers which he succeeded in victimizing from any connection with it, directly or indirectly. He employed another person, whose name was believed to be "John," to make the copies which were sent to the press. It is reported that several other persons were cognizant of the proceeding, and also made it the basis of speculative operations in gold. But Howard, we understand, denies that any person was so implicated with him in the transaction.

Howard's wife was almost distracted when the tidings were conveyed to her of the arrest of her husband. He is a Republican in politics, nearly forty years of age, and a ready writer. This is not the first time he has perpetrated. On the first of April he created no little excitement in Brooklyn by one of his published "jokes."

Francis A. Mallison, a reporter of the Brooklyn Eagle, was arrested on Saturday. He is charged with writing in manifold the copies of the proclamation of the President which Howard had drawn. It is alleged that Mallison received the draft of the proclamation from Howard, with a request to see that copies were delivered at the newspaper offices. The work was performed by his officers who had been directed by him to carry out the copies he had made.

The New York World and Journal of Commerce have again resumed business; the order for their military occupation having been revoked.

GOV. SEYMOUR'S ACTION.

He directs the District Attorney to pay the Attorney General's bill.

ALBANY, May 22. Governor Seymour has written a letter to the district attorney of New York directing him to procure indictments against all who were cognizant of the forgery of the World and Journal of Commerce.

From the World.

THE LATE OUTRAGE OF THE PRESS.

It will be seen by Albany telegram that Governor Seymour has instructed the District Attorney to institute proceedings for procuring the indictment of all persons concerned in the seizure of the World and the Journal of Commerce. There is the same Governor's (treasonable) action in the case of the seizure of the World and the Journal of Commerce. There is the same Governor's (treasonable) action in the case of the seizure of the World and the Journal of Commerce.

There is indeed a law, passed by the Congress, securing immunity to officers of the federal government for participation in summary arrests made under the direction of the President of the United States; but the law (whether constitutional or not) relates merely to persons retained in custody. It has no relation to the wanton destruction of property in places remote from the theater of military operations. If a squad of soldiers should break into a house on Madison avenue, drive the occupants into the streets at night, and put their plate and wearing apparel, the criminals would be just as amenable to the laws as if they did not wear the United States uniform. If, instead of seizing the newspaper offices, they had seized all the business property of the city, and had stopped their business for three days because they were the vehicle of conveying Howard to New York with the copies of the forged proclamation in his pocket, it would have been a proceeding precisely akin to seizing the property and stopping the business of the towns which were the scene of Manny's Patent
COMBINED REAPER & MOWER WITH WOOD'S IMPROVEMENT.
This Machine is presented to the farming community as THE BEST combined reaper & mower made. The large number sold in this State are still in successful operation, and have proven the principles of its construction, the only secure durability, ease of operation, adjustability to uneven surfaces, looseness of mouth, lightness of draft and freedom from side draft.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS OF HART AND BROWN, (none of which are represented in the above cuts), viz.: In place of wooden cutters h now used one of best quality of STEEL, with new and improved guards, and knives which will cut close and clean, and make the Machine much easier. The frame of Machine has been altered at the end of the cutter bar, so the small Machine to pass over a larger square than cut GRASS. It is now constructed to mount on a frame of Machine being detached with making a cutter bar, and on two WHEELS instead of one as before used. A STEEL pitman, or connecting rod, is used in place of iron. Machines does out of gear (knives standing still) when jammed. Grain platform has been so altered that throwing off by hand is much easier than formerly.

The undersigned is still Agent for the sale of the Munny Reaper and Mower in this county, and will be happy to fill orders for it. I have one set up at his Warehouse, in Gettysburg, and requests those in want of such a machine to call and see it.

DR. WISHART'S

TAR CORDIAL.

IS THE VITAL PRINCIPLE

OF THE PINE TREE.

obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medicinal properties are retained.

Have you a Cough? Have you Some Throat? Have you any of the preliminary symptoms of that most fatal disease, Consumption?

Those who should be warned by these symptoms generally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the prevalence and fatality of disease which sweeps to the grave at least "one sixth" of death's victims.

Consumption has destroyed more of the human family than any other disease, and the best physicians for many years have despaired of a cure, or a remedy that would heal the lungs, but for more than two hundred years the whole medical world has been impressed with the fact that there was a mysterious power and efficacy in the Pine Tree Tar to heal the lungs; therefore they have recommended the use of Tar Water, which in many cases had a good effect, but how and why it had such a power as to heal the lungs, has ever been a mystery until it was discovered by Dr. L. Q. C. WISHART, of Philadelphia, Pa., the proprietor of "Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial."

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, daily asking, "What is the principle or cause of your success in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption?" My answer is this:

The investigation of the digestive organs—the strengthening of the debilitated system—the purification and enrichment of the blood, must proceed from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alternative (changing from disease to health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovating principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain, subduing inflammation, and restoring a healthy tendency. Let this twofold power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to act in conjunction, and Nature's constant recuperative tendency, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure.

I ask all to read the following certificates. They are from men and women of unquestionable worth and reputation:

Dr. Wishart—Dear Sir—I had a very dreadful cough and sore throat for one year, and my whole system was fast giving way, and I was prostrated on my bed with little hope of recovering. My disease baffled the power of all medicines, and in a short time I must have gone to my grave, but thank God, my daughter-in-law would not rest until she went to your store, No. 10 N. Second street, and related my case to you, purchased one bottle of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, and I came to my feet, and in one week I was much better, and after using three bottles I am perfectly well, a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case if you think proper. REBECCA HAMILTON, No. 1321 Wylie Street, Philadelphia.

Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial is an infallible cure for Bronchitis, Bleeding of the Lungs, Sore Throat and Breast, Inflammation of the Lungs.

Mr. Ward says:

Dr. Wishart—Sir—I had Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Shortness of breath, and Palpitation of the Heart in their worst forms. I had been treated by several of the most eminent physicians in Philadelphia, but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I had despaired of ever being restored to health. I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your Pine Tree Tar Cordial was highly recommended to me by a friend; I tried it, and I am thankful to say that after using four large bottles of your medicine, I was restored to perfect health. You can give me any reference to my case, No. 62 N. Second street, at my office of Receiver of Taxes, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets. JOHN WALD.

Patentees hereafter. In the meantime he invites everybody to give him a call. He intends to keep on perfect a stock as to accommodate all—and, with the hope of large sales, he wishes to make a list of small prices. No trouble to show goods, and every effort made to satisfy buyers.
